

Concentrated media ownership is not in the best interests of the American public. While it makes for corporate "synergies," it ultimately diminishes the quality of news, resulting in a single voice, broadcasting the same message through their many radio, tv and newspaper outlets. I am firmly AGAINST this motion.